

MRS. SHELDON

Desiderata

Be placidly amid the noise and haste, and remember what peace there may be in silence. As far as possible without surrender be on good terms with all persons. Speak your truth quietly and clearly; and listen to others, even the dull and ignorant; they too have their story. Avoid loud and aggressive persons, they are vexation to the spirit. If you compare yourself with others, you may become vain and bitter; for always there will be greater and lesser persons than yourself. Enjoy your achievements as well as your plans. Keep interested in your own career, however humble; it is a real possession in the changing fortunes of time. Exercise caution in your business affairs; for the world is full of trickery. But let this not blind you to what virtue there is; many persons strive for high ideal; and everywhere life is full of heroism. Be yourself.
Especially, do not feign affection. Neither be cynical about love; for in the face of all aridity and disenchantment it is perennial as the grass.
Take kindly the counsel of the years, gracefully surrendering the things of youth. Nurture strength of spirit to shield you in sudden misfortune. But do not distress yourself with imaginings. Many fears are born of fatigue and loneliness. Beyond a wholesome discipline, be gentle with yourself. You are a child of the universe, no less than the trees and the stars; you have the right to be here. And whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should. Therefore be at peace with God, whatever you conceive Him to be, and whatever your labors and aspirations, in the noisy confusion of life keep peace with your soul. With all its sham, drudgery and broken dreams, it is still a beautiful world. Be careful.
Strive to be happy.

Found in old St. Paul's church, Baltimore.

Noise and Confusion

I've been dazed and confused for so long it's not true.

—Led Zeppelin

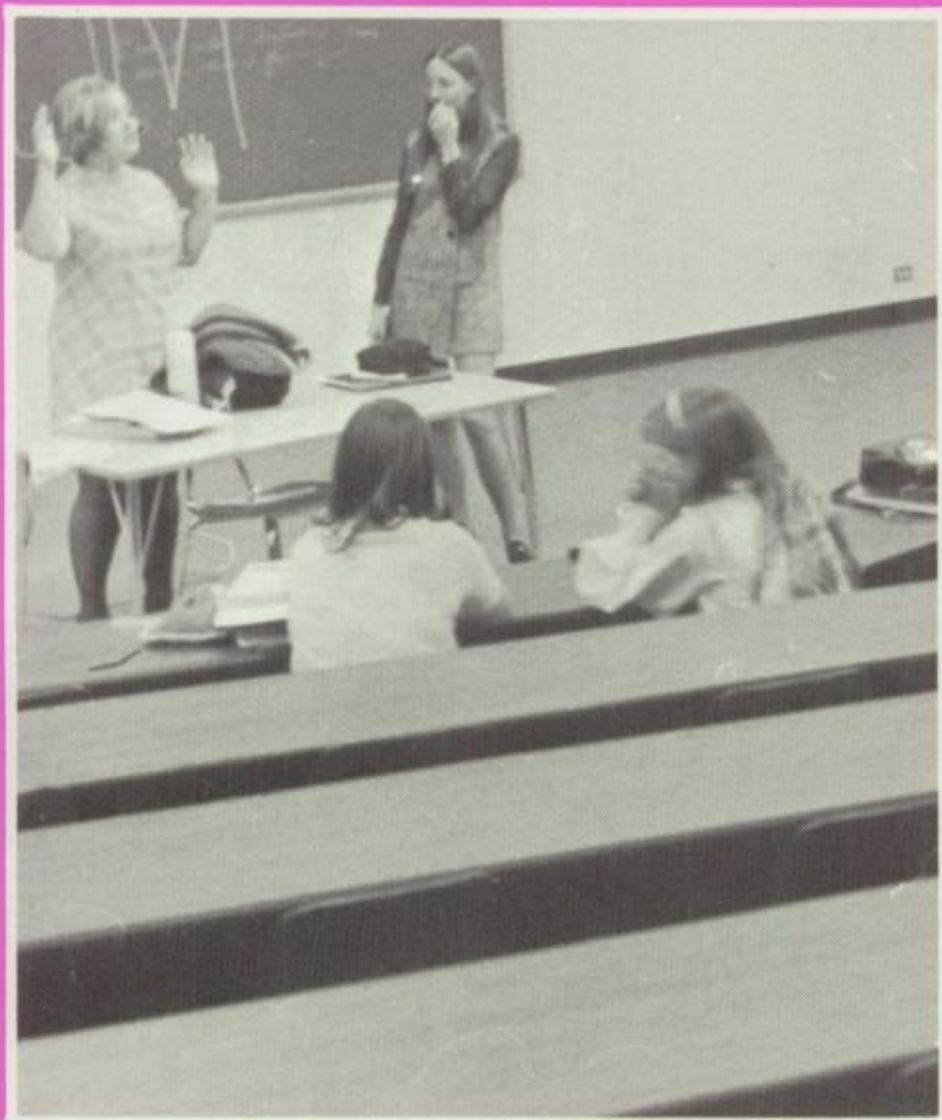

Silence

I really need someone to talk to, and nobody else knows how to comfort me tonight.

— Carole King

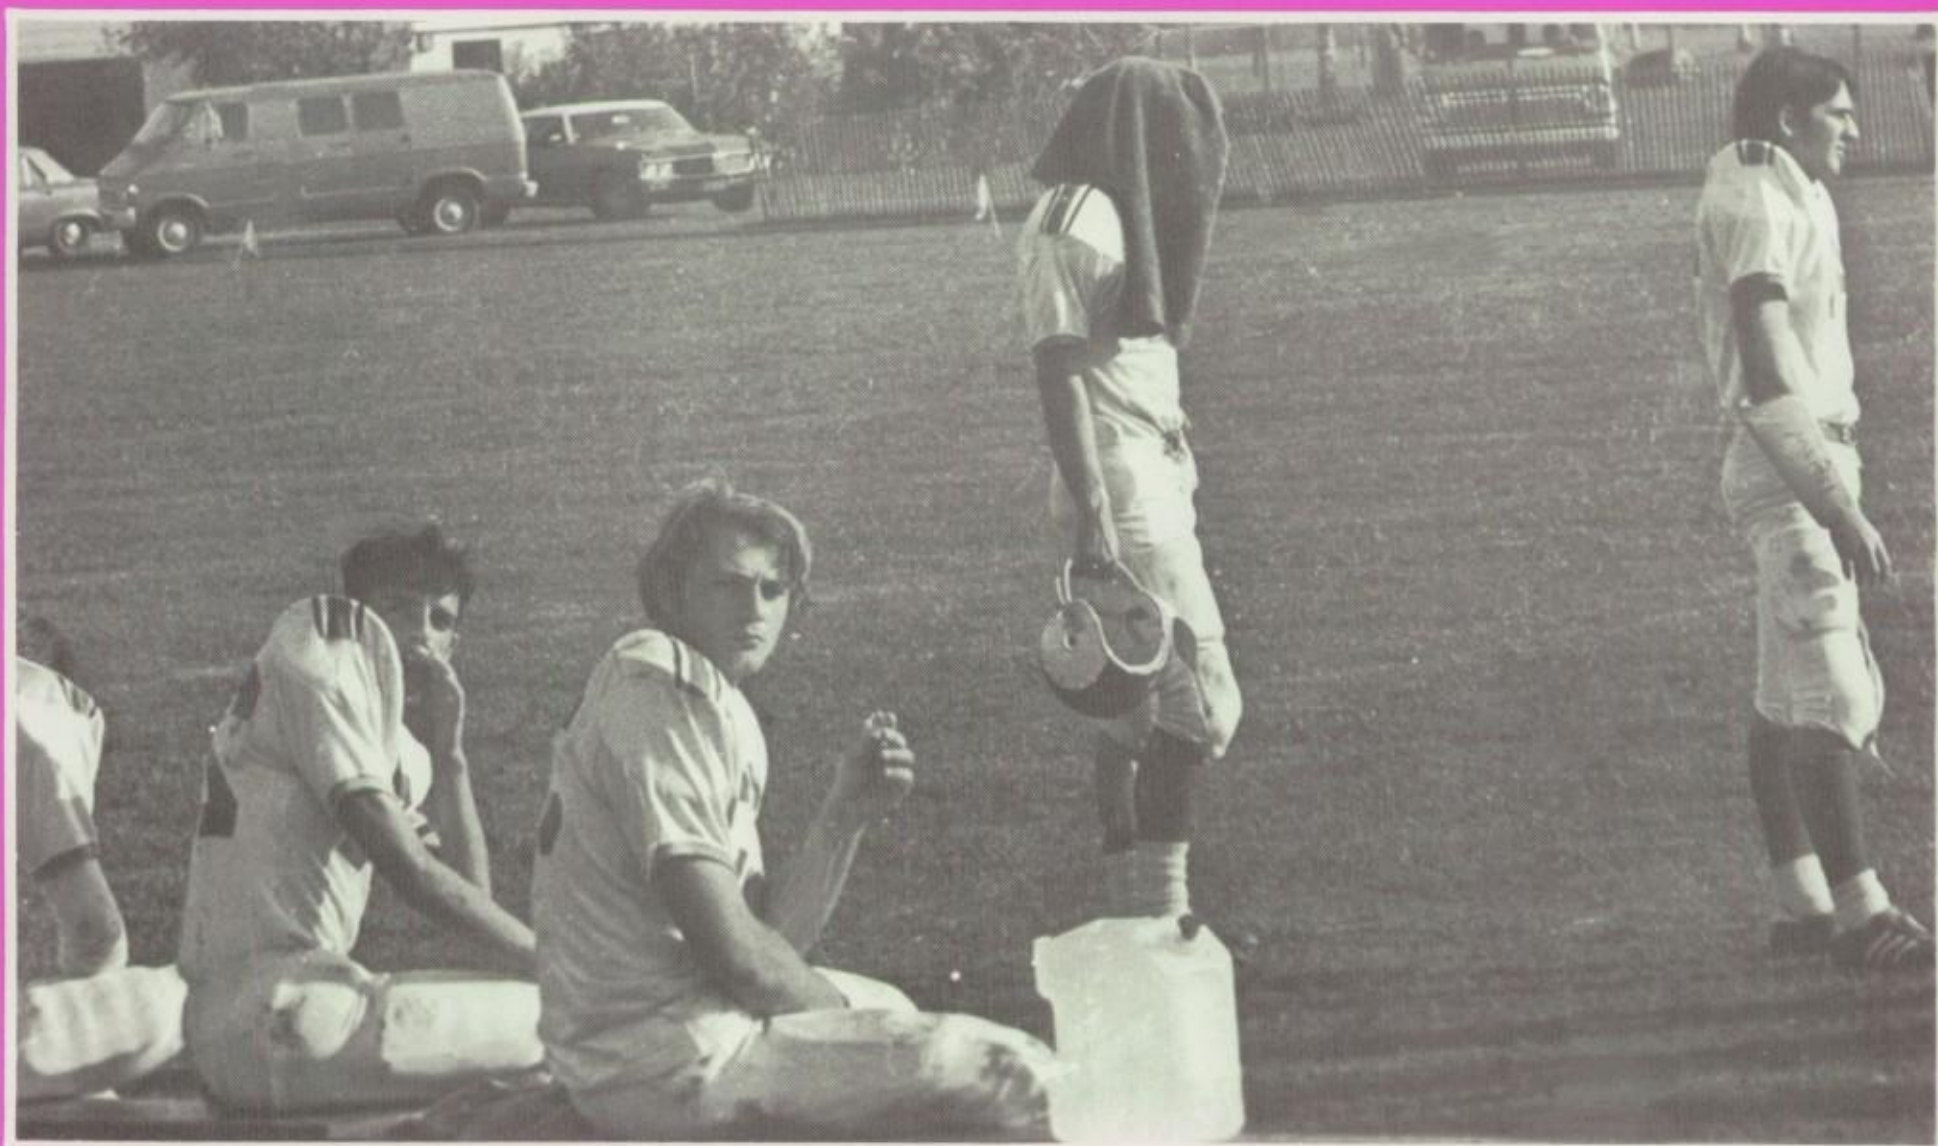

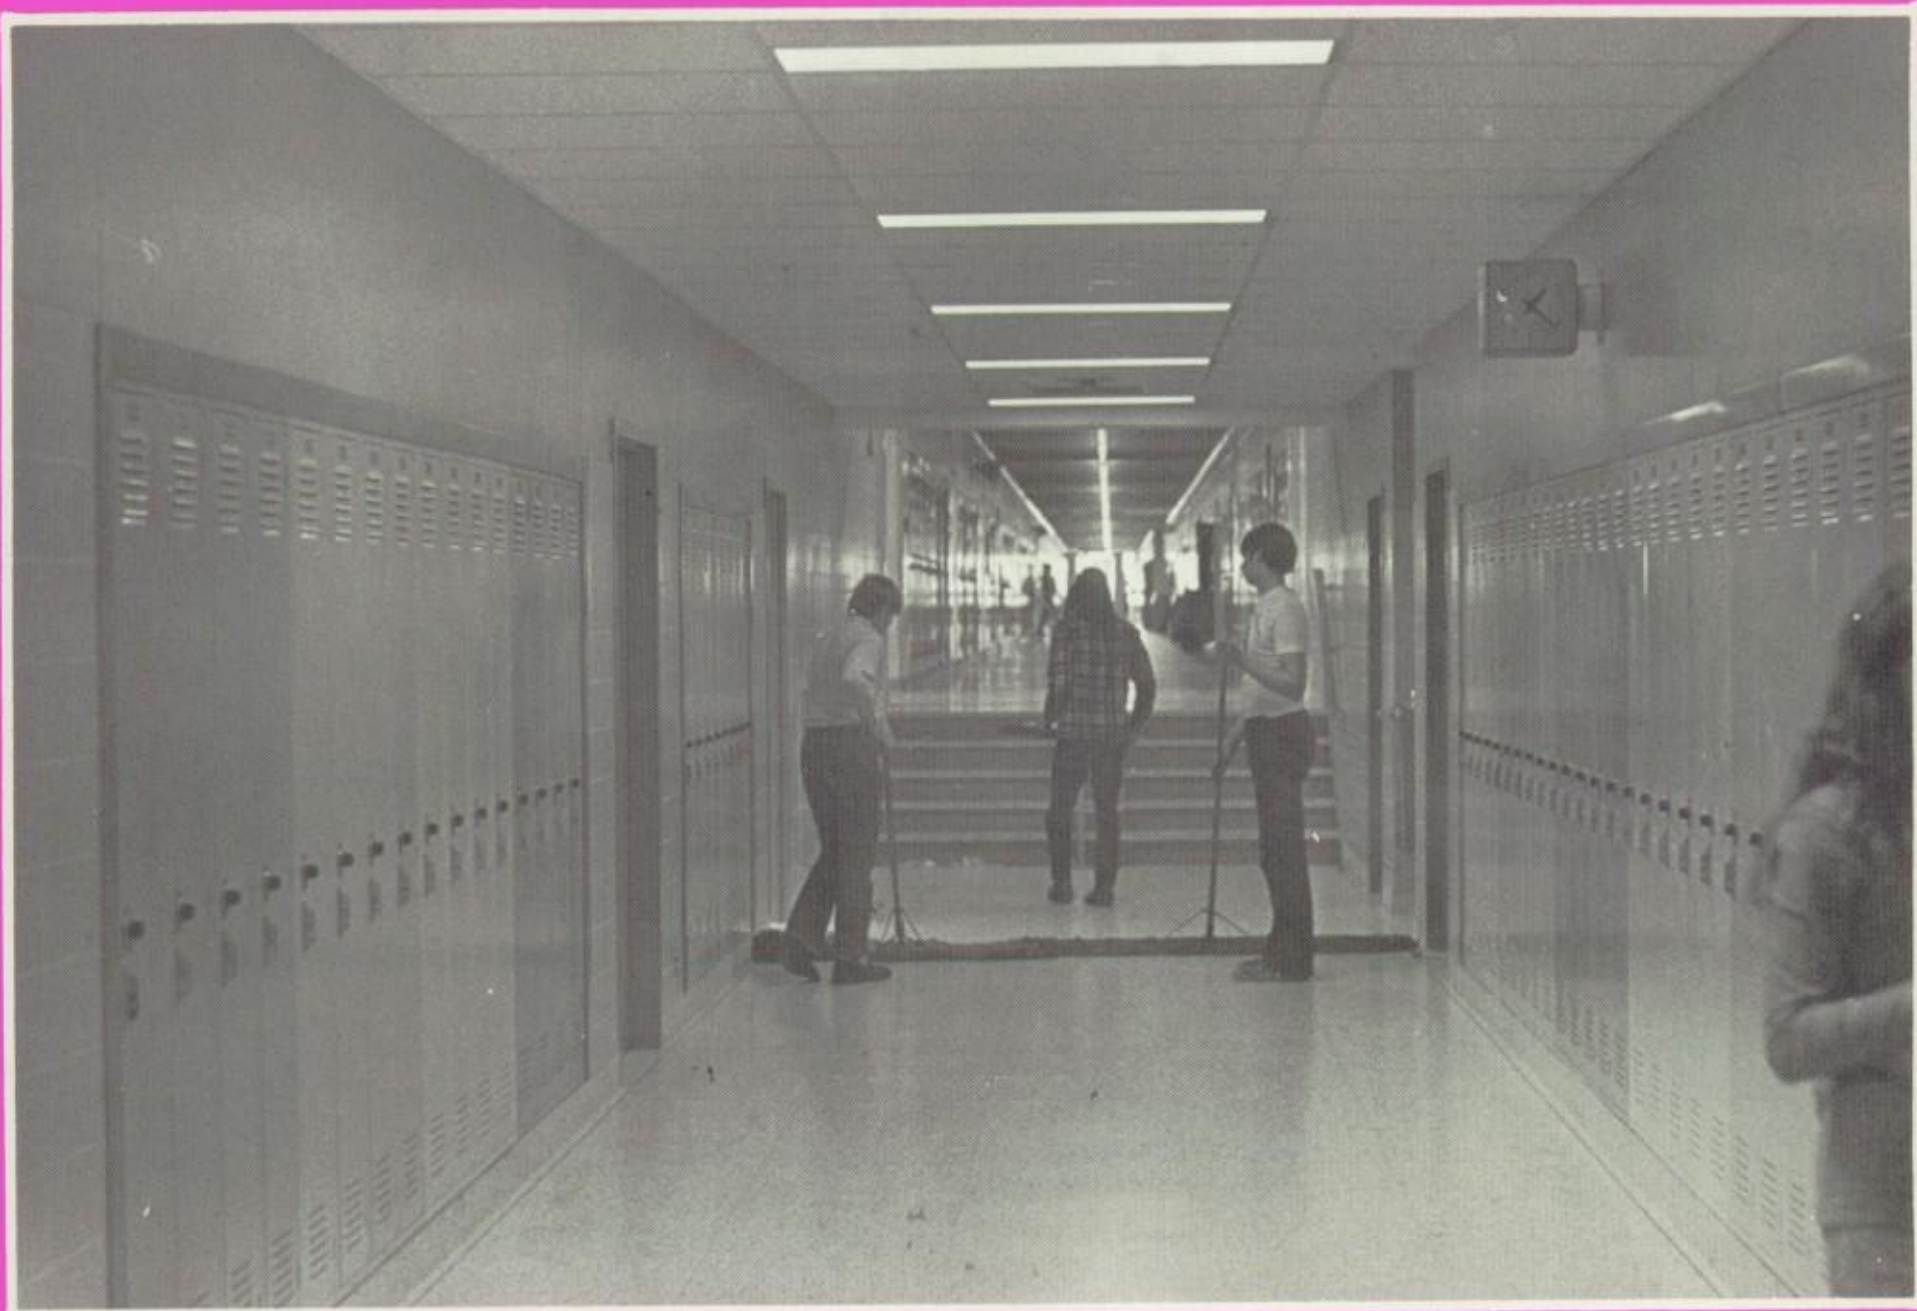

Truth

And I feel like I'm just being born like a shining light breaking in a storm there are so many reasons why.

— Joni Mitchell

Vexations

*It's our only chance of living Take all you need to live inside.
— Elton John*

Achievements

*I've been so many places in my life time I've sung a lot of songs and made some bad rhymes.
I've acted out my love in stages With 10,000 people watching.*

— Leon Russell

Will I live tomorrow, well I just can't say,
But I know for sure that I'm gonna live today.
— Jimi Hendrix*

*Take your time, think a lot,
For you will still be here tomorrow But your dreams may not.
— Cat Stevens*

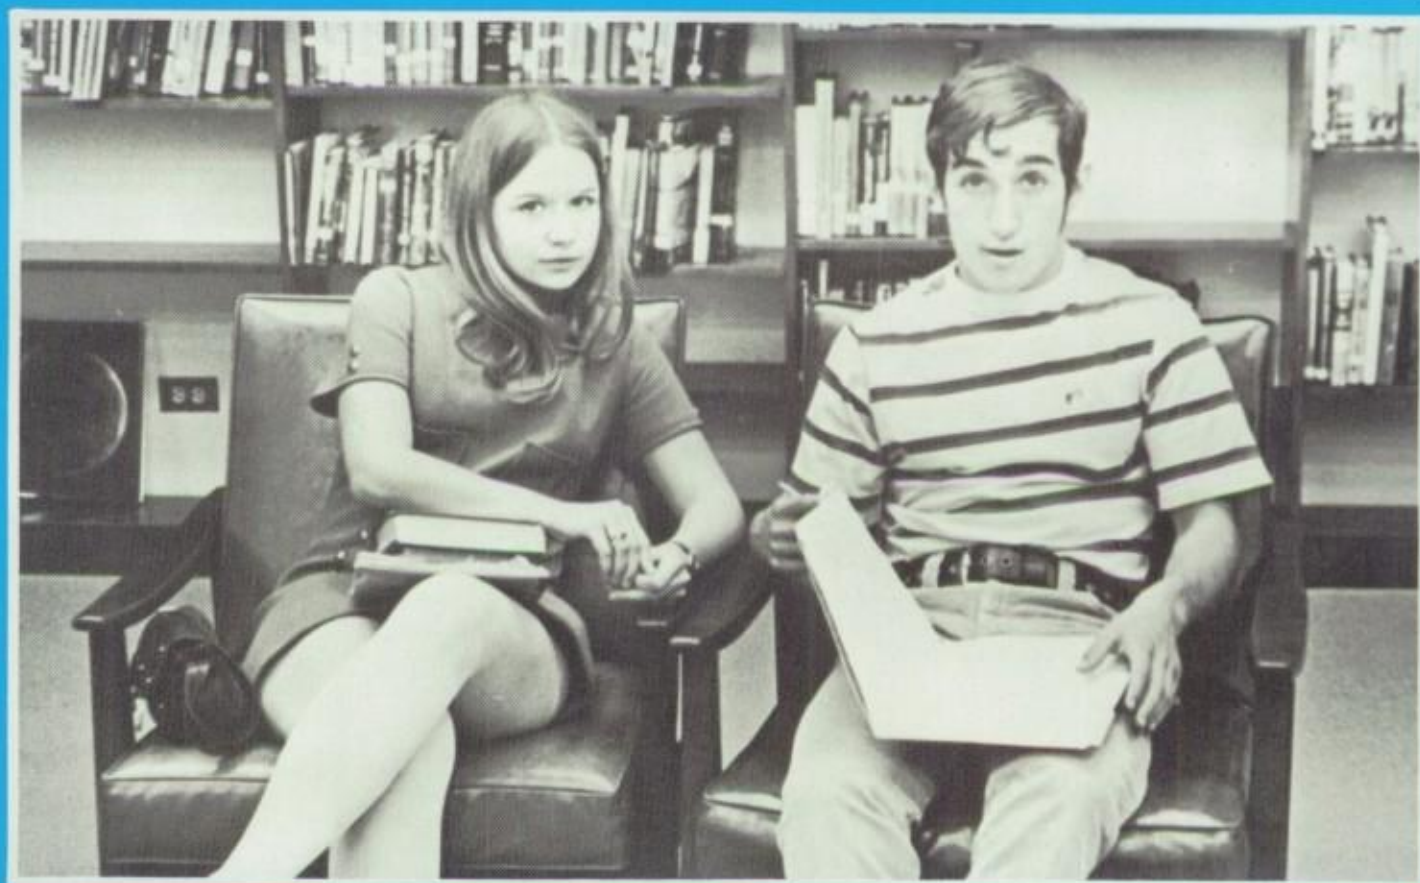

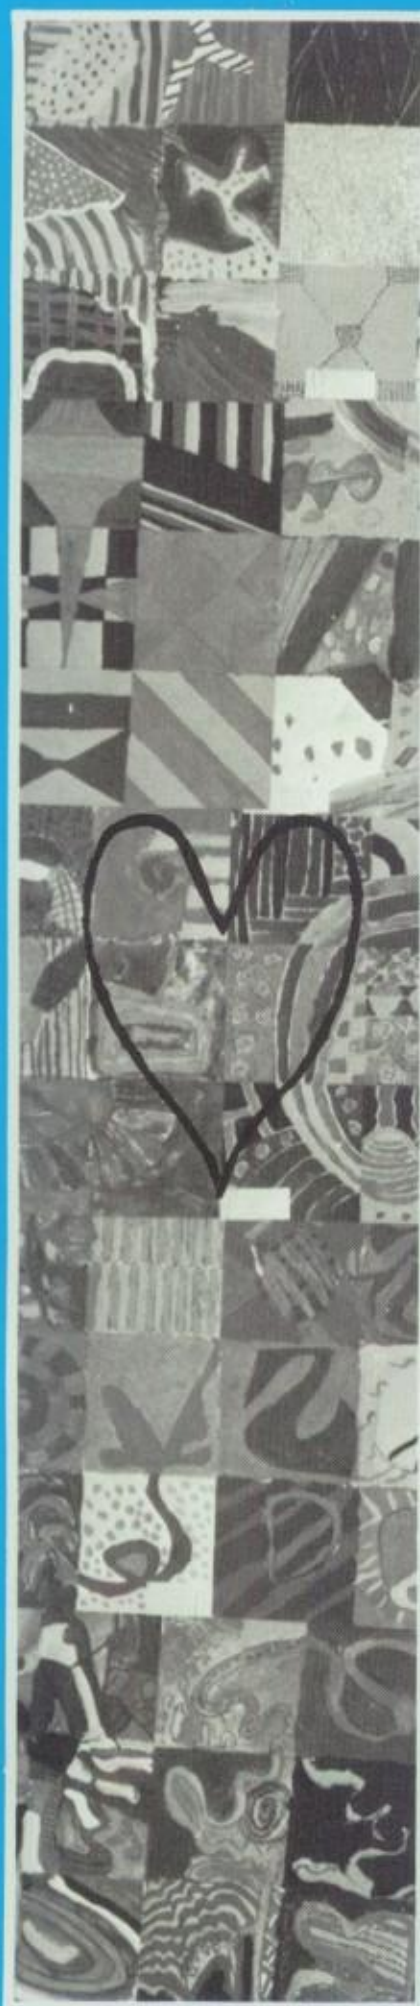

High Ideals

*What if I should say I love you?
Baby, would you steal away my heart?*

— Poco

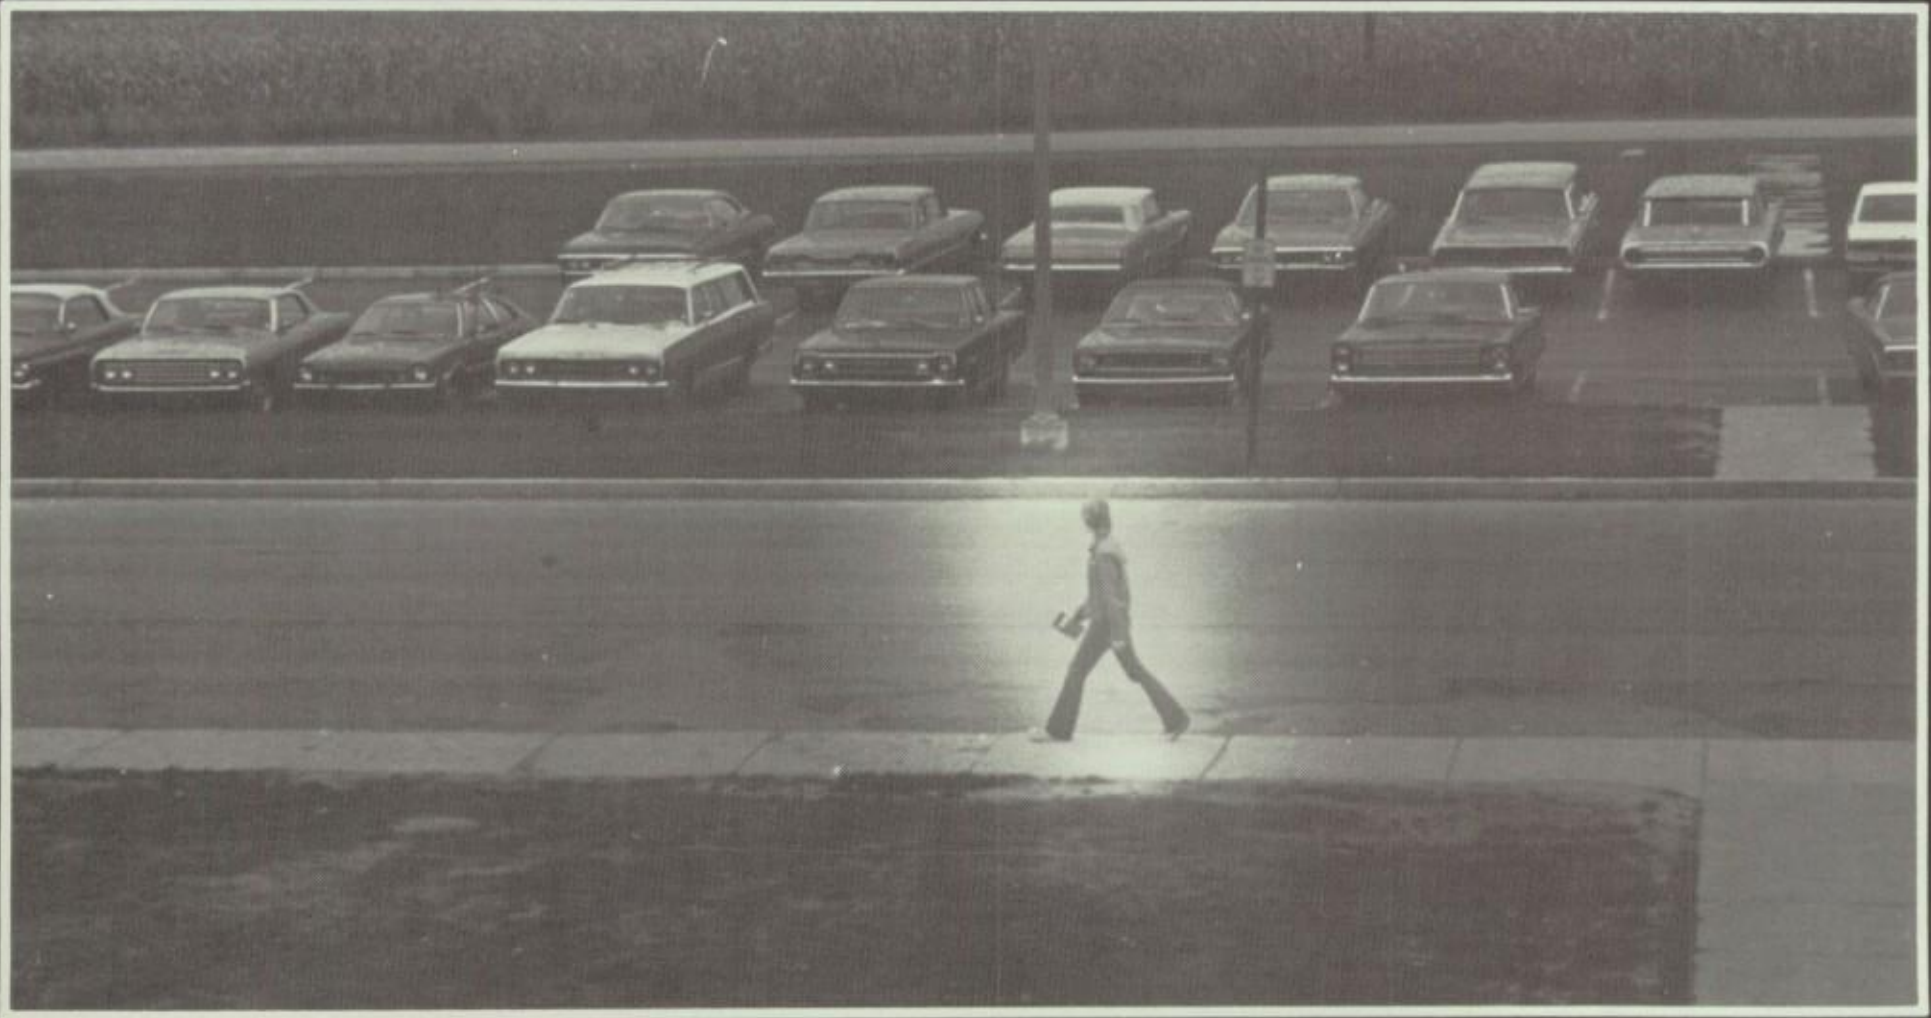

Affection

*Sunshine doesn't last all morning,
A cloudburst doesn't last all day,
All things must pass,
All things must pass away.*
— George Harrison

A black and white woodcut-style illustration of a medieval camp scene. In the foreground, a man in a patterned tunic and cloak sits on a wooden bench, looking towards a man in a dark tunic and a feathered hat who is also seated. To their right, two more men stand near a large eagle perched on a branch. In the background, there are stylized trees and a sun. In the foreground, a small fire burns, and a wooden crate with a sword and a shield are visible.

Senior Class History - '72

Day by day, from September 1969, June 1972, we've lived and experienced together life's phases - our friends, our unfriends and our student leaders.

As sophomores Joe Terranova led our class as president. He was assisted by Dave Nero as vice-president, Donna Lind as secretary, and Belva Serafin as treasurer. During our Junior year, Tim Hoesterman served as president, aided by Kurt Raim, vice-president. Again to avoid male domination in the administration of class affairs, we elected Beth Conklin, secretary, and Dawn Chapman, treasurer, to present the necessary feminine view. Because of their efforts, we had a successful Junior year. In our final year, we elected Wayne Marino president, Mike Neevi vice-president, Sue Comfort and Sandy Gordon secretaries, and Marcia Len treasurer. They enabled us to make our Senior year most memorable and productive.

We've not only profited through our student leaders, but also through our class advisors. Mr. Pawlowski advised our class as sophomores; Mrs. Brill assumed the position for both our Junior and Senior years, attempting among other things to teach us the importance of being a good loser and a deserving winner. Although we lost the Junior-Senior Game to the class of 1971, we still take pride in our unified effort and the fact that the victory was gained by a mere two points. But, when Lancaster-Depeu Weekend arrived, our class rallied, and we were undefeated in class competition.

Throughout our time here, we've set our stamp firmly on the face of our school, and that will remain forever, sealed with year 1972. We've finally come through the course of time... we've occupied our now vacant place, the place that will never be occupied by us again.

As students of Lancaster Central High School, all we have left are our remembrances of the place - the names, the faces, the events. But we now move to a new place: now we are children of the universe.

In the year 2525, if we are still alive, if E. C. S. can still survive, we may find:

David Allen as a fairy godfather

Sandy Anger as a professional kicker for the L.A. Rams

Debbie Arceze as hall monitor at Lancaster Junior High

Martin Bales as a chief cook and bottle washer at Four Host

Marlene Bauer with a dozen kids (they're cheaper by the dozen)

Bonnie Beverly as a bed pan handler

Doug Black as an aardvark trainer

Phil Bologna building the first ski resort on the moon

Don Bosse as governor of New York State

Barb Ciszewski writing a book on how to appear dumb and innocent

Debbie Cline as a frat house cleaning lady

Nickie Criel being adored like Ruth Buzzie

Janice Dalfonso becoming another Jungle Jane Fess

Priscilla Danner as an official kieblasa inspector

Bila Picken giving it to her patients in the end

erry DiFranco still trying to grow taller

Donna Dorobiala as a Carmelite nun

Rob Eicheldinger signed on with Captain Crunch

Lou Elser as a migrant worker at Nuttree

Rich Fallacaro running a rooming house for lost females

Steve Fesla as Prime Minister of Canada

Mike Fischer collecting all of Lancaster's garbage

Diane Forsberg as the official decorator of the Gay Mohal

Dave Fry diving for sponges

Iran Geier as a girl's phys-ed teacher

Mike Goerke as a fashion manager in Allentown

Keith Grimm wrapped around Wendy Collings' finger

Ed Guindon as the president of the United States

Bonnie Gunthorpe in a insane asylum

Sandy Hagen at home collecting unemployment checks

Kathy Harford as the first women president

Donna Harris working as a medical secretary in small male hospital

Ray Harrel working on a cucumber farm

Jane Hartman as the leader of Woman's Lib.

Dianne Hartnell as a frustrated musical scientist

Joanna Hastings as a nightwatchman at the H.M.C.A.

Kathy Helenbrook as a dental assistant in Neuro-surgery

Jane Hess married to Rod Stewart

Grace Houseman furnishing wall-to-wall-cave carpeting

Sharon Hueul married to Dave Bohlen

... and in the year 3535, everything we think, do, and say, is in regards to what we are today:

Debbie Huff studying the habits of Mr. Marinelli
Tom Hoie, Uncle Sam's best friend Janet Hamuz, the official flagpole sitter at the J.N.
Margaret Joseph, mouse-trap perfecter Cereaz Madukil, watching Mr. Hamien writing on his blackboard Mark Kelly, still single and raising his kids the same way Mark Mline as the Muslim Minister in Spanish Harlem Bob Hoeppe, the greatest know-nothing of all times Bob Kucuriez, the first Polish lawyer in Jerusalem Sue Murula, a chicken plucker Sharon Ruznik, a psychiatrist at L.C.S.
Debbie Lane, a Helician nun Lynn Leising, the ping-pong champion of the world
Mary Jo Marano, male killer
Joanne Martina, a moon maiden with green cheese fever Dawn McBride, Mr. McCleary's cereal factory manager Sandy Minnick, a bum in Moronville Dennis Mostiller, a mausoleum worker Pat Nehl, the new cookie woman Sue Paolella, the originator of the all-pro Wiffleball League Mike Necci, co-owner of Joe Laupoli's Spaghetti Bender's Pub Nick Belz, the director of sports at L.C.S.
Debbie Bieszala, a halfback at Notre Dame Collette Burpura, a soap opera nut Mark Kew, an underwater demolition expert in the Navy Danna Powell, on a Chick and Froggy t.v. commercial Linda Eacer, body repairer Dora Rakowski, the flying nun Joe Schuman, Mrs. Markle's assistant in guidance Mara Statman, the wife of a baker with lots of dough Jim Smotherman, known as Evil Krievol the second Dany Carbox, a Maytag repairman
Bob Warmus, head of the Babanza bean industry Lana Wery, a polish cleaning lady Pat Wiend, known as Dustman on Commander Tom Show Barb Wick, in a roller derby

... but in the year of 1972, it seems our class has lived and grew to become what it is today. Now it's time for graduation day.....

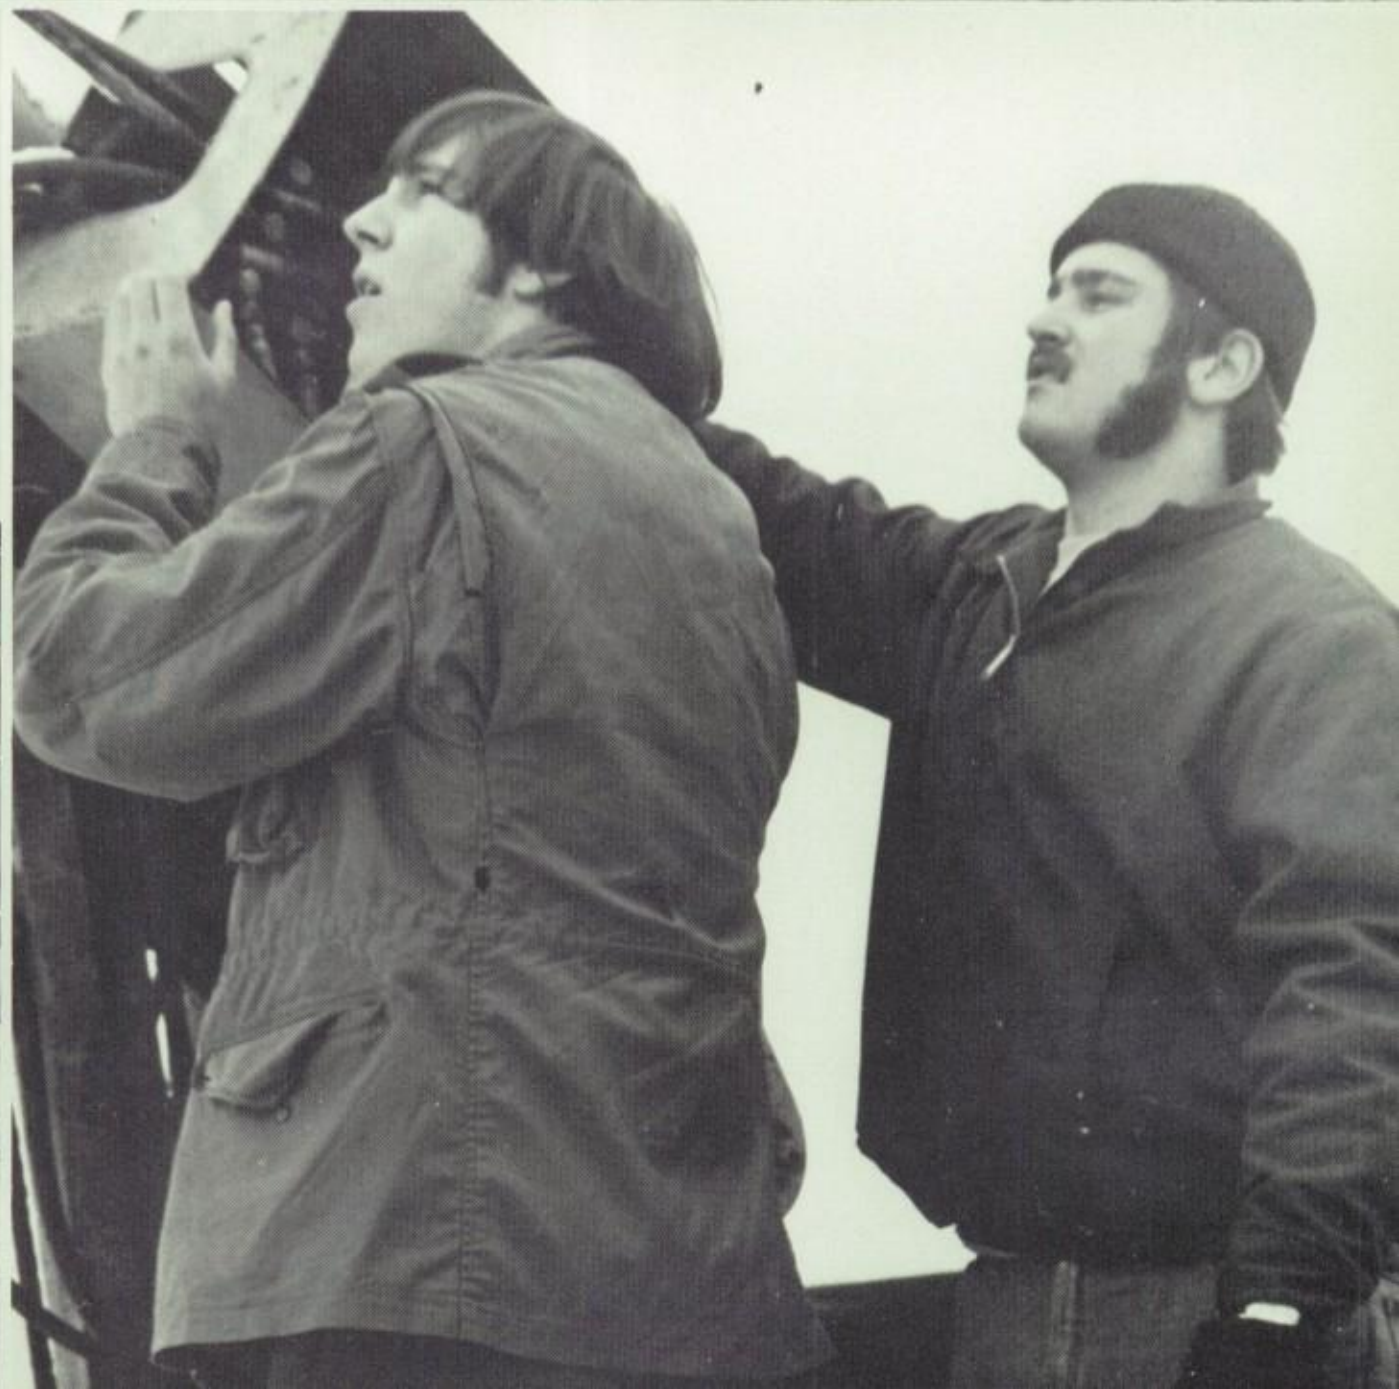

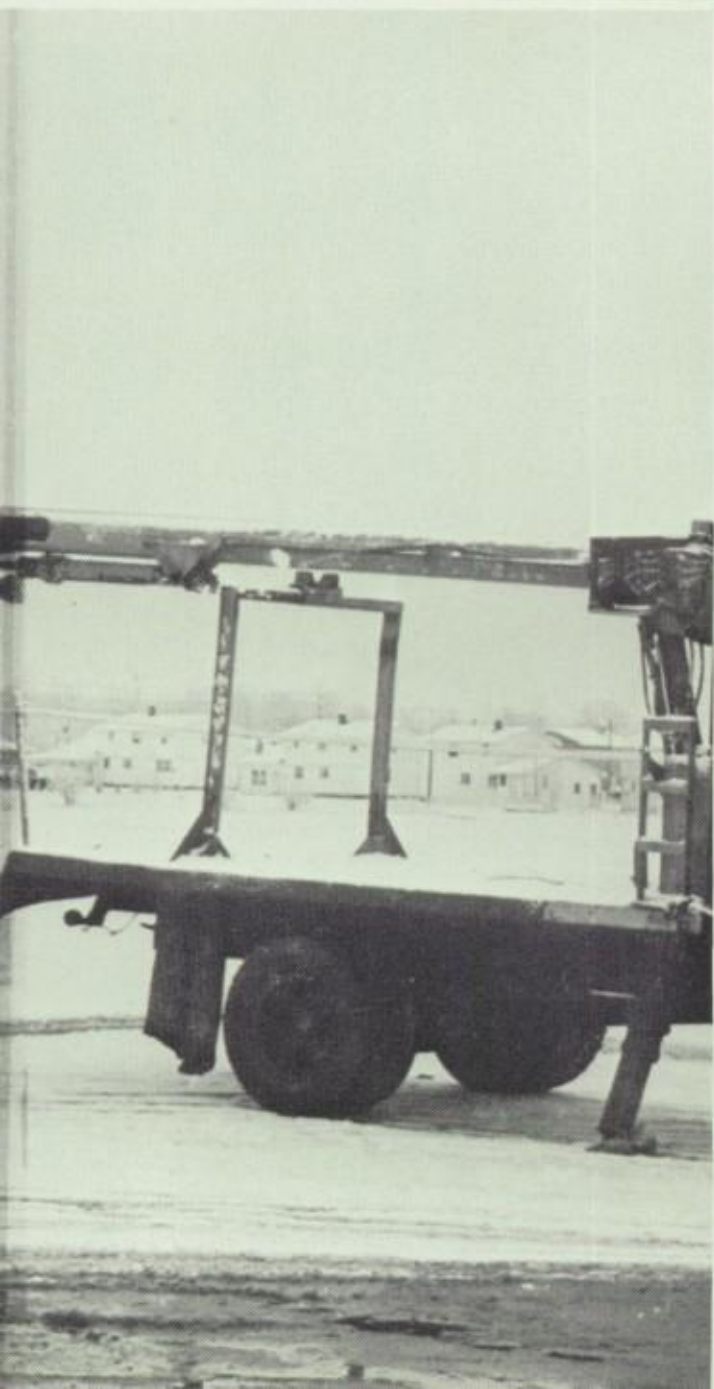

Class Will

 to Marty Loech. Donald Reimer leaves his sneakers to Mr. Visone. Norm Ross wills Mike Bruscia "dear old dad". Barb Rowlette: I certainly will!
 Mike Sagliani wills his underpaying job to someone dumb. Cindy Schilling and Nadine Jahn will 3001 ways to drive Mr. McCleary up a wall. You love it McCleary! Joe Schuman wills a pickle to Steve Heibem. Keith Smith wills his life to Diane. Kim Swatsworth wills death to those who come near Linda. Anna Szczepanski wills Mr. Saia her "doubly bubbles" with interest. Pat Theurer wills 8" of height to Carol. Doris Gottenhagen wills 3 pizzas to Keith Stevens. Tim Vetter wills his p.j.'s to Rose. Stan Waller wills his "blue paints" to Hampton.
 Bob Warming wills his "hairy" legs to Doreen Salvatore. Chris Windnagle wills his battered phone pole to Marilyn. Dale Macum leaves next year's journalism class a chance for a better paper. Paulette Zamerski wills her head to Laura Loerly and Kim Kuta. Cindy Zirilli wills Richard Pabst her extra set of brains so he'll pass, since it will take him 'till he's 22 to graduate. Mr. Jeff Anthon leaves nothing, he has nothing left? The Class of '22 leaves the courtyard to the class lucky enough to use it. The Cayugan Staff of '22 informs the Cayugan Staff of '23 that the doctor is definitely out!
